
Guillaume Willeme

Lecturer in Economics

(Janvier 2024)

University of Leicester, School of Business
BRK 1.23 Brookfield House
223 London Road
Leicester LE2 1ZH

French
Date of birth: July 4th 1989

Email: guillaume.willeme@le.ac.uk
Website: <https://gwilleme.github.io>

Research interests

Primary: Labour Economics, Structural Econometrics, Search and Matching Theory
Secondary: Urban Economics

Position

Since 2019: Lecturer, University of Leicester
2017-2019: Postdoctoral researcher, Aix-Marseille School of Economics
2015-2016: Predoctoral researcher, AMSE
2014-2015: Visiting student researcher, University of California, Berkeley

Education

2016: Ph.D. Sciences Po Paris, Economics
2012: M.Sc. ENSAE ParisTech & Sciences Po, Economics
2010: B.Sc. ENSAE ParisTech, Statistics/Economics

Research

Publications

- "Optimal Taxation to Correct Job Mismatching," Review of Economic Dynamics, 2021.
- "Notre-Taxe de Paris: Tax expenditures with Two Public Goods," with Valeria Rueda (U. of Nottingham), Revue Economique, 2023.

Reports

- "Redesigning Labour Market Policies for the Future of Work: Evidence from the French art scheme," with H el ene Benghale (U. of Lausanne) and Piotr Denderski (U. of Leicester), forth.

Working Papers

- “Age Discontinuity and Nonemployment Benefit Policy Evaluation through the Lens of Job Search Theory,” with Bruno Decreuse (Aix-Marseille Univ.), R&R International Economic Review
- “Local Labor Market Dynamics and Agglomeration Effects,” with Pierre Deschamps (SOFI, Stockholm University).
- “A Dynamic Empirical Model of Frictional Spatial Job Search,” with Christian Schluter (Aix-Marseille Univ.).
- “Career Paths with a Two-Body Problem: Occupational Specialization and Geographic Mobility,” with Valeria Rueda (U. of Nottingham), Upjohn Institute Working Papers 2021.
- “Robots and Firms’ Labour Search: The Role of Temporary Work Agencies,” with Pilar Beneito (Universitat de València), María García-Vega (U. of Nottingham), Óscar Vicente-Chirivella (Universitat de València).

Teaching

- Spring 2020-22: Economics of Organisation (graduate), U. of Leicester
- Fall 2019-23: Advanced Microeconomics (undergraduate), U. of Leicester
- Spring 2018: International Macroeconomics (graduate), AMSE
- Fall 2017: Introduction to Structural Econometrics (Ph.D. course), AMSE
- Spring 2013: TA for Econometrics (graduate), ENSAE ParisTech
- Fall 2012-2013: TA for Microeconomics (undergraduate), Université Paris V
- Fall 2012: Mathematical Methods for Economists (undergraduate), ENS Cachan

Experience

- Reviewer for Economic Modelling, European Economic Review, Journal of Public Economic Theory (x2), Labour Economics (x4), Review of Economic Dynamics, Revue Economique
- Summer internships in the statistics departments of the French administration (INSEE and Ministry of Education)

Awards and Fellowships

- 2023: InterAct Fellowship, £5,000
- 2022: Nuffield Foundation grant for the project “Redesigning Labour Market Policies for the Future of Work,” with Piotr Denderski (U. of Leicester), £107,000
- 2020: Fellowship of Higher Education Academy
- 2020: Best Lecturer Nominee, U. of Leicester
- 2019: Early Career Research Award, the W.E. Upjohn Institute, $5,000
- 2017: Ph.D. award, Prix de la Chancellerie des Universités de Paris
- 2015: One-year Ph.D. grant, AMSE
- 2014: Visiting fellowship for UC Berkeley, Sciences Po
- 2012: Three-year research grant, Sciences Po